The success of our Raider Jacket is that it is our most tailored style vest. In addition to standard features such as level 3A protection and front and back hard armor plate pockets, the Raider Jacket can also be customized to meet any individual or departmental requirements (e.g. specifications for pouches, pockets, and departmental I.D.). The following photos illustrate our standard, and one of our most popular configurations. A favorite amongst agents and special ops units, the Raider Jacket has proven itself the world over.
